Summary

I am a dedicated Generative AI Developer with over 1 year of experience, specializing in Python, Django, LLMs & Fine-Tuning, LangChain, RAG, Chatbots, OpenAI, AWS, and NLP. My expertise lies in leveraging technology to innovate and solve complex challenges, particularly in the realm of artificial intelligence and machine learning.

Previously, I have honed my skills and achieved results in software engineering, focusing on developing robust solutions using advanced AI models and cloud technologies. I thrive in dynamic environments where creativity meets technical expertise, driven by a relentless pursuit of learning and growth.

Let's connect—I am eager to engage with fellow developers, tech enthusiasts, and potential collaborators to explore new ideas and partnerships.
